01. Hanuman Carving.

The Wars of Hindu history depict great heroes and demons in battles of immortal proportions, filled with the awesome force of celestial weapons, religious mysticism, magic, spiritual and supernatural beings.

Hanuman is the greatest devotee of Rama, famous for his unerring service, absolute loyalty and great feats of courage. Hanuman is responsible for killing many demons, as well as burning the city of Lanka.

His strength is given by his father Vayu, and by virtue of the boons bestowed on him by various Gods, he could increase his size and strength beyond any limit he desired. Hanuman plays an important part in locating Sita and in the ensuing battle.

03. Exquisite Detail.

The epic story of Ramayana was adopted by several cultures across Asia. Our carving, "Hanuman", is a historic Thai artwork depicting the battle which took place between Rama and Ravana.

As many as three layers of relief illustrate this Thai interpretation of the Hindu epic. The level of detail is unsurpassed and craftsmanship is second to none.

04. Hand Carved.

As with most works, the artist begins with a large solid piece of wood and painstakingly works on the carving, section by section, over the course of several months.

The scene is mounted in a "picture" style frame to add stability and protection. Weighing just under 200 lbs., the piece can be wall mounted in a variety of fashions.
